EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Marriage of Miss Clark and Mr. Thomson at Bowling Green This Afternoon.

Bennett-Graves Wedding at Noon Today—Summer Plans—Luncheons and Other Parties—Personals.

A blue bird will be the "something blue" on Miss Genevieve Clark's wedding gown at her marriage to Mr. James M. Thomson of New Orleans, which will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark, at Bowling Green, Mo. Miss Clark will live up to every word of the old-fashioned rhyme and superstition, which says "something old and something new, something borrowed and something blue." The something old will be a hand-embroidered undershirt that Mrs. Clark wore on her wedding day; and the "something borrowed" will be rare old lace that comes from the chest of a St. Louis matron. The blue bird that will be pinned to her frock came as a gift from Washington friends. Friends of the Clark family have already come forward with the offer to loan the bride veil, and Miss Clark has an opportunity to select from a choice that includes veils of plain tulle that have historic sentiment dating back to colonial days and veils of priceless lace, including a rose-point veil that is said to have been worn by a queen.

Her attendants are Miss Jean Roberts of Alexandria, Va., who will be the maid of honor; Miss Agnes Hart Wilson, daughter of the Secretary of Labor and Mrs. Wilson; Miss Dorothy Thomson and Miss Imogen Thomson of Summit Point, W. Va., sisters of the bridegroom; Miss Anne Bennett and Miss Sue Bennett of Kansas City, Mo., cousins of the bride; Miss Helen Morton Robnett of Columbia, whose engagement to Mr. Bennett Clark was recently announced, and Miss Murray Sanderson and Mrs. Vera Holcomb, both of Bowling Green.

They will wear gowns made in Dresden shepherdess style and carry long crooks topped with bouquets. Mr. Paul Thomson of New Orleans, brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Bennett Clark, Mr. Lynn H. Dinkins of New Orleans, Mr. James W. Billingsley of New Orleans, Mr. William Clarence Robinson of Summit Point, W. Va.; Mr. Braden Vandeventer, Dr. William H. Carr of Washington, Mr. Carl S. Palmer of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mr. Seymour Backus of Minneapolis, Minn.

The speaker will give his daughter in marriage. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Robert Sherman Boyd of Louisville, Ky., cousin of the bride, in a Gothic temple which has been erected under a huge locust tree on the lawn adjoining the house. A general invitation has been extended to Missourians and the majority of those in the vicinity will attend. Gov. Major and his party arrived yesterday and the Missouri delegation in Congress, headed by Senator Reed and Senator Stone, is also at Bowling Green for the occasion.

The marriage of Mrs. Harriet T. Graves and Mr. Claude N. Bennett took place today at noon at the residence of the bride, on F street. Rev. William D. Moss, formerly pastor of the Washington Heights Presbyterian Church of this city and at present chaplain of the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, officiated. The ceremony, which was witnessed by only the members of the immediate families, is the culmination of an engagement of several years standing, and comes as a surprise to the friends of both bride and groom, who are widely known in literary and club circles of the city. Especially, it is pointed out, is the event of today a surprise to members of the Southern Society of Washington, in which both Mr. and Mrs. Bennett have worked enthusiastically toward its development, growing from a little group of 100 members to an enrollment of 1,000 during the two years of Mr. Bennett's presidency.

Just a month ago Mr. Bennett declined a unanimous re-election, and last evening, at the last meeting of the season, a reception was tendered to him and to the incoming president, Gen. William C. Gorgas of Panama, a naval fame and now surgeon general of the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett left immediately after the ceremony for New York, where they will be entertained for several days by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schneider. Their actual honeymoon trip will begin July 4, when they will sail from Buffalo through the great lakes to Duluth, and thence journey through the Canadian Rockies, visiting such points as Glacier Park, Mount Rainier Park and then going to San Francisco, where they will visit the exposition at San Diego. Their trip will consume fully six weeks, and the return will take them to the American Rockies and the Grand Canyon and by way of Kansas City and St. Louis.

Mrs. Bennett is the head of the American clubwomen in Washington, belonging to a number of patriotic and literary organizations. However, she is not a Washingtonian, but, like her husband, a Georgian by birth, claiming Rome as her birthplace. There her girlhood was spent, and Miss Ellen Ashton, later Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, was her Sunday school teacher. She has been a resident of Washington for eighteen years.

Mr. Bennett has also resided in Washington for a number of years, and been identified with many important projects and organizations. He was private secretary to Senator Hoke Smith when the latter was Secretary of the Interior. He belongs to the Sons of the Revolution, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, the Washington Readers' Club, is a member of the board of governors of the University Club and of the National Press Club.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will take up their residence at the Brighton, where they will be at home to their friends after November 1.

Admiral and Mrs. Green and the Misses Green left today for an extensive tour through the New England states. A pretty wedding took place at Lay Hill, N. E. Church, South Wednesday evening, June 16, when Miss Margaret Polson Bonifant became the bride of Thomas McLean Leitch, formerly of California. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. F. Neel, assisted by J. W. Mitchell. Ferns, white and trailing vines formed an effective background for the masses of roses and white blossoms which adorned the altar. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John Bonifant, wore a gown of white faille trimmed with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride and bridesmaid's roses. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo and carried pink Killarney lilies. Mr. Yates acted as best man, and he ushers were Mr. Medford Canby and Mr. George Bonifant, brother of the bride. Bird, which was elaborately decorated for the occasion with roses, palms and ferns. Miss Virginia Wilson, aunt of the bride, assisted in receiving and wore a gown of black crepe meteor. Dr. and Mrs. Leitch left later for an extended trip through the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone Park, California and other points of interest.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Greene left this morning for their summer home at Troy, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Smith of 417 G street southeast announce the marriage of their daughter, Doris Parsons, and Mr. William Ernest Smith. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Edmund H. Swann, and was attended by the immediate relatives of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home after July 10 at 1234 I street southeast.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Stewart of Capitol Hill gave a delightful party at their home last Monday evening to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Milton Britton rendered several piano selections and the Merry-makers Club, of which Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are members, surprised them with a kitchen shower.

Refreshments were served on the lawn, which was decorated with Japanese lanterns. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitford, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnston, Mrs. Milton Britton, Miss Gladys Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. King, Miss Gooding, Miss Hattie Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Disney, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams, Masters Curtis Stewart, J. Lukens, the house was prettily decorated with flowers and ferns.

The bride wore a simple gown of white voile over white silk. Her tulle veil was held with a wreath of sweet peas, and she carried a bouquet of bride roses and white sweet peas. Miss Lella Volk, the bride's cousin, was her only attendant, and she wore flowered voile and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Chester Jacobson was best man. An informal reception for the guests already assembled at the ceremony followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Arata left later for their wedding trip. They will be at home after August 1 at 1401 Massachusetts avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ferris, assisted by the former's sister, Miss Anna Ferris, entertained the members of the Loyal Society of the Spanish War at their country residence, Blumfont Junction, Va., Sunday, June 27.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lawlor announce the marriage of their daughter, Estelle Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ball, and Mr. Eldon Henry Leitch, who were married at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, snaildragons and ferns.

The bride wore a gown of ivory tulle and sat in a long train, falling from the shoulders.

She wore a tulle veil held with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a pearl brooch, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Salomon Brewer, the maid of honor, wore a gown of shell pink georgette crepe and chiffon and carried Lady Hillington roses.

Mr. Ashby Leitch was best man. Little Bertha Ball, sister of the bride, was the train bearer.

A reception followed and later Mr. and Mrs. Leitch left for a trip through the Shenandoah valley, the latter wearing a suit of cream-color serge with small leghorn hat faced with black velvet.

Miss Marjorie Nettleton and Mr. John Peyton Torbert will be married this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Grace Walker Nettleton, on Euclid street. Rev. Dr. John Carpenter Palmer officiating.

The bride will wear a white embroidered net dress with a white picture hat, and the maid of honor, Miss Mary Williamson, will wear a white ruffled organza gown with a leghorn hat. Little Virginia Britton will be the flower girl. Mr. Raymond Bryant of Baltimore, cousin of the bridegroom, will act as best man.

A reception will follow. Mr. and Mrs. Torbert will be at home, after August 1, at 1446 Euclid street.
